

Rev. L. J. Bristow for Featherstone.

Preacher Says Featherstone's Record in Regard to Liquor Question is Without One Break.

Rev. Louis J. Bristow of Williamston, who has been identified with the prohibition movement in this State ever since he attained citizenship, was in the city yesterday in the interests of the chautauqua to be given in Williamston this summer.

In view of his connection with the prohibition movement, he was asked what the campaign outlook promises. He declared that a prohibition candidate will be elected.

"I had hope that the prohibitionists would go into the primary this year with only one candidate for governor," said Mr. Bristow, "but I see by the papers that there will be at least two in the race who will espouse the cause of State-wide prohibition. While I know prohibition sentiment has grown greatly in South Carolina during the last 12 years, and while I do not doubt the election of a prohibitionist to be governor, yet I would like to see only one candidate, that the total prohibition vote might be cast for him. Furthermore I would like to see that be C. C. Featherstone. He is the logical exponent of prohibitionists, being the most prominent prohibitionist in the State, and one of whose sincerity there can be no question, and of whose ability and fitness no one doubts.

"Mr. Featherstone's record on the question is long and consistent. Twelve years ago he ran for governor on the prohibition platform when it was not popular in the State, and a change of 1,500 votes then would have made him governor. He has stood firmly and fought well ever since. Four years ago he was urged to run again, but he felt that first of all the old State dispensary should be destroyed, to accomplish which was needed the combined strength of all its opponents. Two years ago his notable correspondence with Gov. Ansel revealed the governor's intention to advocate and recommend the reversed local option law, which was, in effect, what Mr. Featherstone had outlined as, at that time, a desirable policy for State-wide prohibitionists to pursue.

"Mr. Featherstone is preeminently the man for the prohibitionists," continued Mr. Bristow. "He is a splendid campaigner, as was shown in 1898, when he opposed some of the best speakers in the State, and successful politicians, and defeated them all save Gov. Ellerbe, who had the second term sentiment in his favor, as well as the dispensary at his back."

Mr. Bristow declared that Mr. Featherstone's record on prohibition is so well known that this will be but a small factor in his campaign this summer, and that Mr. Featherstone will devote his time to the discussion of matters relating to the material development of the State.

After paying a compliment to Mr. Featherstone, who has worked his way in the world from printer's apprentice to special judge, sitting in numerous courts and a citizen of known integrity and success, Mr. Bristow concluded: "Yes, C. C. Featherstone is the logical prohibition candidate. He is not a novice; not a recent convert to the cause. He is able and fearless, of a clear record and a clean life; and I believe will be the next governor of South Carolina."—Columbia State.

YOUNG MAN OF GAFFNEY SHOT HIS OWN FATHER.

The Deed Was Done in Protecting His Mother From Cruelty of Drunken Husband.

W. H. Bright is lying at the office of Dr. Pittman in a critical condition from a gunshot wound through the bowels, fired by his son, Travis Bright, at the home of a Mr. Smart, in Gaffney, this morning about 5 o'clock.

The wounded man and son have been conducting a meat market in what is known as West End for several months, and have been doing a fairly good business, except when Bright, Sr., would take a drunken spree, which it is said would be frequent, and at such times he was very violent. Yesterday he was drinking, so the report goes, and when his wife went to help her daughter nurse a sick child he followed her and ordered her to go home at once. Travis Bright, who is about twenty years of age and who is married, was at his sister's also. When Mrs. Bright refused to go, it is said that her husband struck her a heavy blow in the face, which left a deep mark, and when Travis attempted to interfere his father struck him also. This was about 3 a. m.

Mrs. Bright then went to town and demanded protection from the police, asking that she be locked in jail, as she was afraid that her husband would kill her.

She remained in the waiting room at the station house until almost 5 o'clock, when her husband came up and persuaded her to go home. Mrs. Bright refused to stop at home, but went to Mr. Smart's who lived near where she found Travis. It seems that Bright came up and accused Travis of keeping his mother away from him, and when the young man denied having done so, his father slapped his face, it is reported, when the young man shot him. Immediately after the shooting young Bright went to Sheriff Thomas. Travis has the reputation of being a quiet and sober young man. The intestines of the wounded man are punctured in two places, and if he recovers it will be most remarkable.

Drs. Steedly and Putman have been giving him surgical attention, and everything possible is being done for him.

Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more. Sold by all druggists.

Butter that was sold to the English working classes of the fifties was adulterated with ground flint. The flint stones were ground and manipulated into a substance called "soluble silica." This dissolved in water formed a stiff jelly, which was mixed with the butter, fresh salt and coloring matter being added. The compound resembled a very good looking dairy made butter.

Women as well as men are made miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable by kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root. REARRIED IN 12 MINUTES

An Acrobat and an Opera Singer Break the Record.

New York Special to Baltimore American.

Divorced and married in 12 minutes was the record established by Otto Unger, an acrobat at the Hippodrome. At 3 o'clock Supreme Court Justice McCall granted Unger an absolute decree of divorce from his wife, Cornelia Unger. Sitting with him in court at the time the decree was granted was Malenia Annie Brodighi, an opera singer 28 years old.

Justice McCall's signature had hardly dried on the divorce papers when Unger, accompanied by Miss Brodighi and his counsel, William Klien, left the court house for the city hall. At 3:05 p. m. they had received a marriage license from City Clerk Scully. A telephone message to Alderman John J. White brought the alderman to the city hall at 3:09 p. m.

The quartet went down to the marriage room, and, at 3:12 just 12 minutes after the divorce had been secured, Alderman White pronounced Unger and his bride man and wife.

A Two-Headed Snake.

Barnwell people.

We saw with our own sober eyes on Wednesday of last week the double-headed young rattle-snake caught a couple of weeks ago on an island in Buck Creek swamp by Messrs. Hair and Hartzog. It was a sure enough rattle snake, some six or seven inches long, about the size at the largest part of the body of a proper titi pipe stem, and beautifully marked. One head was a little larger than the other but both were fully developed. There was a little button on the tail showing that its age was about a year. The double terror was found when a small log was turned over. It was torpid from cold, but when laid near a fire became vicious. It is preserved in alcohol. For a sight of this great curiosity we thank Mr. W. R. Lard.

Give the Editor Some Credit

The editor of a newspaper is often accused of leaving out certain items of news purposely, because of a dislike of the person to be mentioned, or from prejudice or from some other cause. This is all bosh. The editor has something like a million different things to think of in connection with the issue of one paper, and it is not surprising if he misses an item occasionally, or sometimes forget one which has been called to his attention. Nine out of ten people you ask for news items will tell you they don't think of any. But in most cases they expect the editor to think of them all, and criticize him if he fails in a single item. The best way is to give the editor credit for what he does find and mention, and for some things he finds and doesn't mention.

Are you frequently hoarse? Do you have that annoying tickling in your throat? Does your cough annoy you at night and do you raise mucus in the morning? Do you want relief? If so, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you will be pleased. Sold by all druggists.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so gives HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the agent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. It's a fact, it's a fact, it's a fact.

ROBBER HAD HIS NERVE.

Looted Drug Store While Crowds Were Passing From Theater. Pittsburgh.—A robber held up a drug store proprietor here, got all the cash from the drawer, and escaped, although the theatre crowds were passing at the time and the street was brilliantly lighted.

The robbery was most daring, as the vicinity was brilliantly lighted and the streets were thronged. In full view of the crowds the highwayman entered the drug store, walked up to the counter, drew a large revolver from his pocket and commanded the proprietor to throw up his hands. The druggist laughed at the man who announced: "I mean business."

Still covering the doctor, the robber walked around the counter, opened the cash register and put all the cash in his pockets. While he was doing this, a negro entered, and when the gun was pointed at her she tumbled.

A STRANGE FATALITY.

Such Seems to Have Pursued Those in Alleged Capitol Scandal. Harrisburg, Pa.—The strange fatality that has pursued some of the principal figures in the capitol scandal was again brought to the public mind when John E. Scott, one of the chief witnesses in the celebrated case, was found dead in the bathroom of the house where he made his home while in Harrisburg. He is the sixth man in the case to die. His death was due to heart trouble.

Scott was secretary to the board of public grounds and buildings which let many of the contracts for furnishing the capitol that brought more than a dozen men to the bar of justice. He was a witness in two trials, already held, and was to take the stand in the case of Joseph M. Huston, architect of the capitol, whose trial will come up next month.

Two of the six men who died were under a two years' sentence, one was awaiting trial and two were important witnesses. Besides these, one of the many men under indictment has been confined in an insane asylum.

All in a Heap.

Three Irishmen were crossing the bridge of Cork, and one of them, happening to look over the parapet, felt a strong desire to touch the water. But they could not see how it was to be done.

At last it was suggested by one of them that by hanging on to the feet of each other they might accomplish what they desired. They made the attempt, but found that their combined length was not quite sufficient to reach the water.

Then the one at the top cried to the undertow, "Arrah now, Paddy, hold on till I come down to you, and then, my honey, we shall reach it." And they did.—London Fun.
